

Faith 101

Faith is an agreement based on trust, belief and commitment. It is learning to be sure of what we hope for, and the certainty of what we do not see (Hebrews 11:1).

Evidence

1. Prayer
2. Christians
3. Bible (just another book; not reliable for truth)
4. Personal Experience (good luck or bad; life involves hard work and determination)
5. Miracles (just coincidences)
6. Evolution (creation by accident; nothing behind the process)
7. World
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

Reasons For:

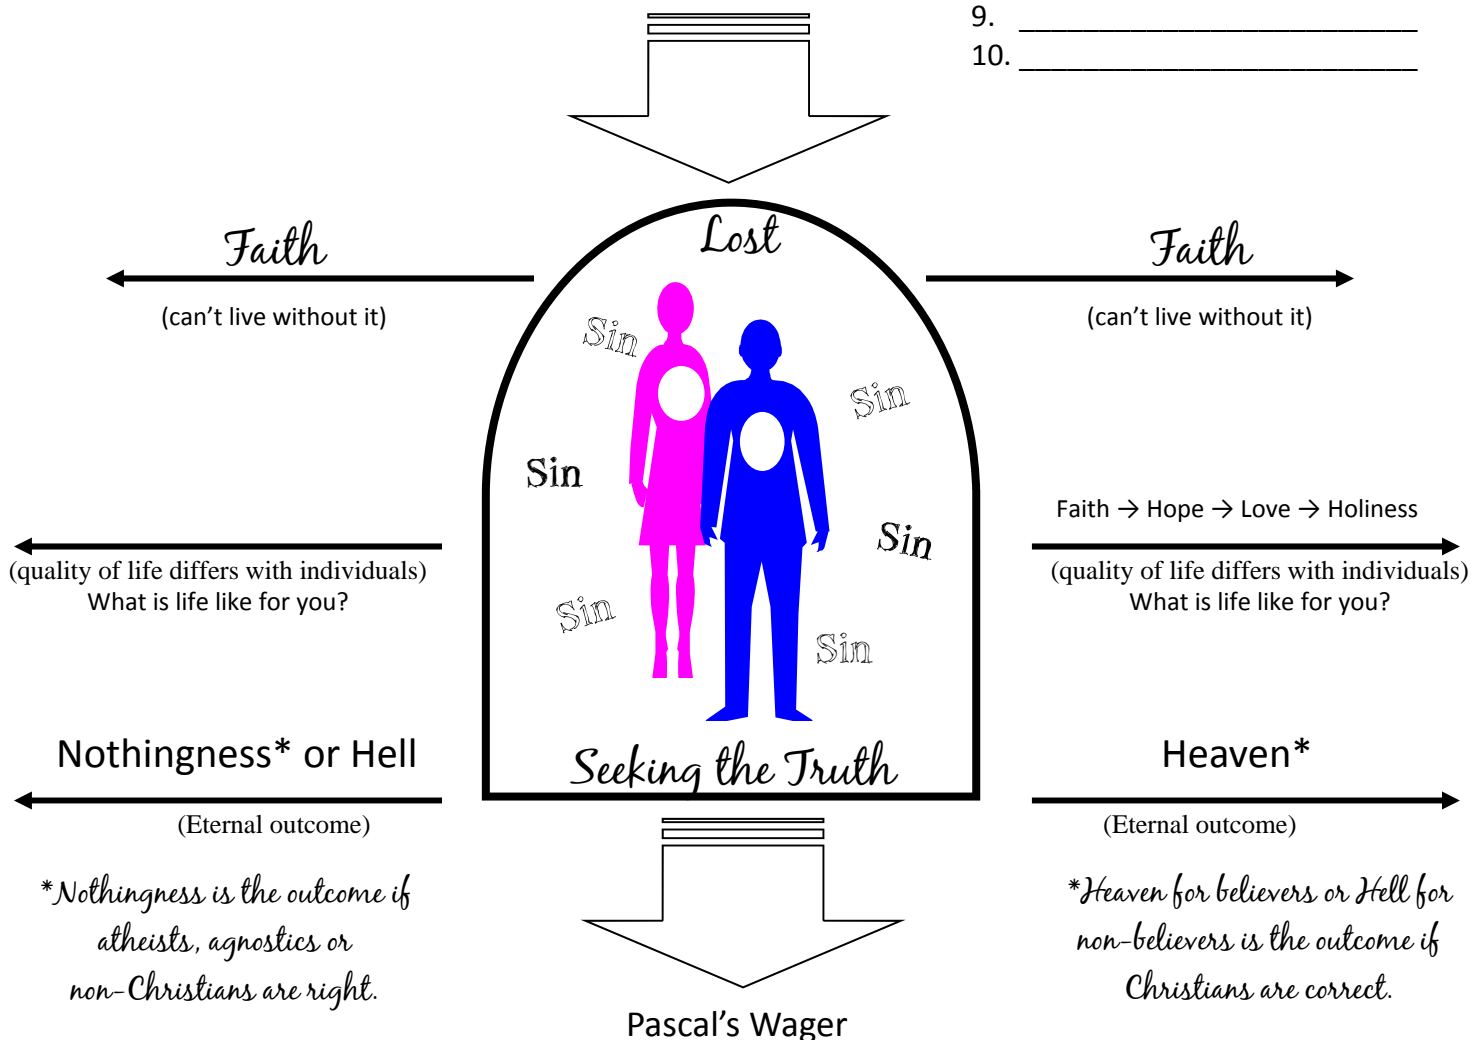

Believing

or

Not Believing

Evidence

1. Prayer
2. Christians
3. Bible (Holy Book; Word of God; Absolute truth inspired)
4. Personal Experience (good fortune and bad; life involves hard work and determination; but God ultimately determines our destiny and good fortune)
5. Miracles
6. Creationism/Evolution (God is behind the process)
7. World
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

Nothingness is the outcome if atheists, agnostics or non-Christians are right.*

Heaven for believers or Hell for non-believers is the outcome if Christians are correct.*

Pascal's Wager is a suggestion posed by the French philosopher Blaise Pascal that even though the existence of God cannot be determined through reason, a person should live, or wager, as though God exists, because so living has potentially everything to gain, and certainly nothing to lose.